St John's, Wimbledon seeks to appoint Choral Scholars - soprano & alto voices.

The Choral Scholars, one in each voice-part, join our friendly amateur choir and receive an honorarium of £1,500 (2023–2024), plus occasional fees for weddings etc where applicable. There are also opportunities as a soloist and to perform recitals. Scholarship applications are open to students at all stages of their careers.

(Wimbledon is only 16 mins from London Waterloo on the train.)

The Choral Scholars will sing alongside the St John's Singers at Sunday services at 10.15am. The choir rehearse on a Friday evening 6.00pm–7.30pm.

Auditions are by arrangement with the Director of Music. Applicants will be given a sight reading test and asked to sing one piece of their choice.

To apply please send CV and covering letter, which should briefly outline reasons for applying, via email to the Director of Music, Robert Mingay Smith, music@stjohnswimbledon.co.uk

Closing date: Fri 16th Feb 2024
